DETAILED ACTION

This action is in response to the reply filed on May 8, 2008.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 2, 5, and 27, and 29-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mulinder (7,340,430), as set forth in the previous Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 19-20 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mullinder in view of Silverman (6,625,583), as set forth in the previous Office Action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed May 8, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Applicant argues that Mulinder does not disclose "facilitating the subscriber to generate a request for quote for at least one product of the subset of the plurality of products based on the plurality of quotes and transmit the request for quote to all of the at least one market maker via the network, each of the at least one market maker being responsive thereto to generate another quote in response to the request for quote and transmit the other quote back to the subscriber via the network wherein the subscriber may generate an order based on the other quote...". In response, Mulinder discloses that a client forwards a request for quote to the system (col.7, lines 10-15). After reviewing the price request, a trader may decide to reject the price request. The trader may modify the price quote in any number of ways. Limits may also be placed on the prices provided by the quote engine (col.8, line 50 to col.9, line 20). Once a price has been determined, it is transmitted back to the client device for review (col.9, lines 20-45). Therefore, the Examiner is interpreting Mulinder as reading onto the invention as claimed.

The Applicant argues that neither Mulinder nor Silverman disclose or teach mechanisms for request or generating quotes. In response, Mulinder disclose requesting and generating quotes (see response above). Silverman was incorporated as a teaching of various quote data.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
